

The Power and Passion of Archives

A Festschrift in Honour of Kent Haworth

Edited by Reuben Ware, Marion Beyea, and Cheryl Avery

Published by the Association of Canadian Archivists

© 2005

Table of Contents

1	Preface – Marion Beyea
---	-------------------------------

Kent Haworth: the power and passion of archives

7	Reuben Ware Kent Haworth, 1946-2003: Let's Just Do It
23	Kent Haworth Career Chronology
27	Kent Haworth Bibliography
39	Sandra Haycock, John MacLeod, George Dupuis, Anjali Vohra From Schellenberg to Schubencadie
55	John Warkentin No Wasted Words
65	Mireille Miniggio To Make a Difference

Accountability

69	David Wallace Freedom of Information in the Digital Age: A Crisis of Diminished Accountability and Access
85	Heather MacNeil Research Uses of Personal Information: Some Ethical Considerations
113	Verne Harris The Archive is Politics

Access and Users of Archives

- 127 Ian Wilson
'From one generation to another:' the transformation of archival access
- 141 John Lennox
Using the Archives
- 153 Pina D'Angelo Felletti
Children's Use of Archives: The Principle of Uncertainty as a Basis of Instruction
- 183 Wendy Duff
Working as Independently as Possible: Historians and Genealogists Meet the Archival Finding Aid

Description

- 205 Kent Haworth
"Standing on the Shoulders of Our Predecessors:" transforming archival description for archival information networks
- 211 Peter Horsman
Samuel Muller, the 'Inventaris,' and ISAD
- 225 Terry Eastwood
Recent Trends in the Description of Archives in Canada
- 237 Margaret Hedstrom
Re-imagining Descriptive Practices for Electronic Records

Contributors

Photographs